Warship Dogalia Arrives Down From Portland.

FOG-BOUND HERE OVERNIGHT

Gerald C. and Della Both in From the Lower Coast—Steamship Thyra Departs for Port Pirie—Anson Out for San Francisco.

The Italian warship Dogalia came down through the mist and rain yesterday in fairly good time, under the pilotage of Captain Peterson. She came to an anchor in the city channel over night and will leave out for the Sound today; after a brief stay there she will depart for Europe via San Francisco, the Mexican and South American coasts.

The steamer Lurline made it to Astoria yesterday in rattling good time, considering the fog on the river. She went up on time, and among her passengers was C. T. Kamm, who has been alarmingly ill on his farm below this city for the past week and who goes to the metropolis for treatment by his family physician.

The barkentine Georgia and the schooner O. J. Olsen were towed up the river yesterday by the steamer Harvest Queen, the former going to Rainier, and the latter to Linton, for cargoes of lumber.

The Hammond raft was reported this side of Pillar Rock at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and will probably be down this morning, the Henderson and Jones doing the towing. The Leggett is expected hourly to take it to sea.

The Norwegian steamship Thyra came down at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, lumber laden for Port Pirie, Australia, and will probably make it to sea some time today.

In the big cargo taken out from Knapperton on the schooner Churchill, on Tuesday last, were 200 pieces of 12x12 inch stuff, each sixty feet long.

The Gerald C. arrived in yesterday forenoon from the Siletz coast with a full load of merchandise.

The steamer Anson came down from Portland yesterday and left out at 1 o'clock for San Francisco.

Astoria's marine infant sea-goer, the Della, arrived in yesterday morning, from Nestucca, with her customary load of fine cheeses and other dairy products.

The steamer Elmore came in from Tillamook City and bay points yesterday evening about 6 o'clock. She reports a sharp gale blowing down the coast all of yesterday.

The steamer George R. Vosburg is expected down from Portland shortly. She will load out cannery supplies from this city, for Nehalem, and after winding up her affairs there, will proceed to Coquille River and do some down-coast towing.

SKAMOKAWA'S SIXTH ANNUAL

Lively Washington City Will Give Its Grand Water Carnival This Week.

There is a good deal of local interest in the coming regatta at Skamokawa on tomorrow and Saturday, and especially since Dell Scully was charged with the admiral's honors, of that festival. Dell is having some trouble in selecting his rear admirals, owing to the fact that the men he wanted are not to be had owing to previous engagements, and he has to keep choosing a new lot every day in order to accomplish his selection of five, from Astoria; he will add to these from the ranks of Skamokawa's citizens some time today, and the corps will be known tomorrow, of course. Astoria will send a strong delegation up the river to enjoy the hospitality of her neighbor and she certainly wishes her abundant success.

Miss Katherine Johns, of that happy burg, was in the city yesterday on a trip incident to the prime honor of the queenship, which has fallen to her this year, and it has fallen most worthily, by the way; she is bright and pretty and devoted to Skamokawa, and will lend charm and dignity to the pleasant two-day event. Her court ladies are all named and at her solicitation and consist of the Misses Alice Lamont, Hazel Kennedy, Marie Howell, Frances Johns, Mabel Carlson and Mrs. Bert Alger. The flower girls are the Misses Hazel Bailey, Miss Lenore Mulder (crown bearer) Grace Kennedy, Blanche Heron, Ada Frederickson and Agnes Peterson.

THE BRANDON PLAYERS.

Excellent Attraction Billed for Next Week at the Star Theater.

One of the best and highest class attractions that has come to the coast for a long time and which will make its appearance in Astoria for the first time beginning next Monday, is the famous troupe of Brandon Players.

This excellent company has held the boards throughout the entire summer at the Tacoma opera house and the press and public of that city are loud in their praise of the company and the class of performance they give. The advance man of the Brandon Players arrives today and the opening bill will be announced as soon as definitely fixed upon.

Mr. Gervurtz, in accordance with his customary liberal and up-to-date policy of pleasing the public, has decided upon a number of important changes which he will at once put into effect. He expects to immediately issue coupon tickets for the entire reserved section, which will be a great advantage in all respects. He also has ordered a complete line of new scenery which is due to arrive from Portland at any time.

They Got Him—Thomas Brugg, who for a time acted as engineer on the U. S. Customs launch Patrol, departed last night for Portland under the guardianship of Secret Service Agent Foster and Deputy U. S. Marshal Kerrigan, where he will be held to answer a charge of impersonating a secret service man and obtaining money under false pretenses. It seems that Brugg represented himself to be in the employ of the U. S. secret service to Mrs. Overstreet of this city, and further said that he was here looking into a counterfeiting case. On this showing he managed to secure the sum of $100 from the unsuspecting woman. Later the woman went to a Portland hospital and while ill there told of giving Brugg $100. An inquiry soon developed the fact that he was an impostor and his arrest followed.

Argue Case—Today the case of Frank Furia and Joseph Desjere, charged with illegally fishing in the waters of the Columbia river without being residents of either the States of Oregon, Washington or Idaho, will be argued before Judge Gilbert in the Federal court at Portland. The defendants admit that they are residents of California and in the justice court were found guilty and fined $50 apiece. The case has been taken to the Federal court on the ground that the act limiting fishermen on the Columbia river to residents of the three Northwest states is unconstitutional. Last night prosecuting Attorney Harrison Allen and G. C. Fulton, representing the defense, left for Portland to argue the case.
